

Important Note

All the candidates who have participated in 1st phase of counselling of NIPER JEE 2021 and have downloaded the allotment letter and also the candidates participating in 2nd phase of counselling should note the following:

The allotment process is software based system generated, hence there is no manual interference. The allotment is exactly according to online form filled by the candidates at the time of applying for NIPER JEE 2021. The software is designed in such a way that while allotting a seat to the candidate it takes care of specific category. After seat allotment those who download the allotment letter will be required to submit the undertaking, category certificate, qualifying degree certificate, medical certificate, migration, proof of age and any other relevant certificates (if any) to respective NIPER only, when they will report for their admission and commencement of the classes. Validity and acceptance of a particular certificate will be decided by the respective NIPER. However, all the relevant certificates must be submitted before the commencement of 1st semester of their examination, till then, the admission will be provisional and only then they will be allowed to appear in the semester examination.
