About Royal Society of Chemistry - London, (UK)

The Royal Society of Chemistry (RSC) is a learned society (professional association) in the United Kingdom with the goal of "advancing the chemical sciences". It was formed in 1980 from the amalgamation of the Chemical Society, the Royal Institute of Chemistry, the Faraday Society, and the Society for Analytical Chemistry with a new Royal Charter and the dual role of learned society and professional body. The headquarters of the Society are at Burlington House, Piccadilly, London. It also has offices in Thomas Graham House in Cambridge. The Society has offices in the University City Science Center, Philadelphia (USA), Beijing and Shanghai, China and Bangalore, India. The organization carries out research, publishes journals, books and databases, as well as hosting conferences, seminars and workshops. It is the professional body for chemistry in the UK. "The RSC has a Global Membership of over 60,000 and are actively involved in the spheres of education, scientific publications and professional conduct, etc.

About Royal Society of Chemistry (UK) – India Deccan Local Section (RSC-IDLS)

RSC-IDLS has organized various educational activities viz., conferences, top of the bench, workshops, seminars, quiz, science fair for school children, PG & PhD poster symposium in chemistry and summer camps for high school and inter students. We have also conducted teacher training program for science teachers, those who are working in the remote areas of Andhra Pradesh, Telangana and Karnataka schools & colleges. We have worked with local female scientists and teachers to raise the profile of chemistry to girl students in many colleges and schools. We have not only created awareness among young generations but also attracted many students to take up the chemistry as their core subject in their future career. RSC is conducting ChemCareers for the benefit of chemistry graduates every year. RSC Deccan section is one of the leading chapter for the propagation of chemical sciences. Also, promotes chemistry to the wider public through popular lectures.

About NIPER-Hyderabad

- Institute of National Importance Fostering Excellence in Pharma Education -

National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (NIPERs) have been created by an act of Parliament and each institute is an autonomous body functioning under the Department of Pharmaceuticals (DoP), Ministry of Chemicals & Fertilizers, Govt. of India. Having been declared as "Institutes of National Importance", NIPERs have been contributing to the growth of the pharmaceutical industry.

NIPER Hyderabad was setup in 2007 in the erstwhile IDPL R&D centre, Balanagar. Ever since its inception, NIPER Hyderabad has been functioning with an object to create an environment congenial for synergizing academia, R&D and industry through training and research. Through consistent efforts, it has transformed itself to be a world class institute of teaching and research in pharmaceutical sciences and management. The institute has setup fruitful collaborations with various organizations nationally and internationally. Innovative areas of research are explored every year in emerging segments driven by the research expansion motive.

About Poster Symposium

Aim of the symposium: This event provides an ideal opportunity for early career researchers, including postgraduates, research scholars doing PhD program to gain experience in presenting their work, either in poster format or via oral presentation only for a few. One-day-meeting is to promote scientific interaction between the students and scientists with a shared interest in the field of "Recent Advances in Chemical and Pharmaceutical Sciences". The poster symposium offers a chance for PhD, MS & MSc students to showcase their research results to their peers, leading academic and R&D chemists. The poster-session will proceed with keynote lecture by distinguished scientist.

There will be a First and two Runner ups prizes for the best posters. Certificates will be issued to all the registered participants.

What is Poster Session?

The poster sessions provide an informal forum to report the outcome of an innovative project(s). It is a visual presentation, on a 1 m X 1 m poster-board, outlining a piece of research. It is expected to be in a form that is easily assimilated and stimulates interest and discussion. The aim is a fruitful exchange of ideas between the presenter and the people reading the poster. It should tell a story. As in any research presentation, the outline includes a statement of the problem, a description of the method, a summary of the work, and then a presentation of results. Conclusions should leave the reader with a clear message to take away. Poster presentation is more lively than a lecture.

Guidelines for the submission of abstract of the poster

Abstract should be written in Times New Roman font (12 pt; single space) and should not exceed 300 words.

Young Investigator Oral Presentations (duration 5 min.)

Those who are interested to give oral presentation (limited numbers) can submit their abstract along with the presenter's name. Final selection for oral presentation is based on the importance of the research work and will be intimated to the candidates in advance.

Guidelines for poster

Title; Author Name(s): Indicate Main Author with asterisk (*); Address of the Institute / University/College & Department; Abstract Text; Results & Discussion; Conclusions; Schemes/Figures; References if any; E-mail address; Poster size: should be 1 sq.m or smaller.

NOTE: Any poster not presenting original work will not be considered.
