

Topic: The Future of Medicine

Dr. Julius Anthony Vaz

Dip.Pharm Med(UK), MFPM
Global Program Head,
Cardiovascular & Metabolic Disease,
Established Medicines Development Unit,
Global Drug Development,
Novartis Healthcare Pvt. Ltd.

Introduction:

- Dr. Julius Vaz joined Novartis as Global Program Medical Director (Metabolism) and later took over the role as Head – Global Development (Gen Med) for Novartis, India before he moved to Global Program Head (Cardiovascular & Metabolic diseases, Established Medicines).
- He has played a lead role in driving talent within the India site. Dr. Julius's career has expanded across various roles in both early and late stage drug development including medical affairs that has spread over the last 23 years.
- During this period, he has worked with P&G, Ciba-Geigy/Novartis, Novo Nordisk and Dr Reddy's Lab's before he rejoined Novartis
- He has led large teams in Development being based out of India, Denmark, Singapore and Canada.
- Dr. Julius is a physician by profession and has received his post graduate qualification i.e.; M.D in Pharmacology from St. John's Medical College, Bangalore, India. In addition, Julius also has a Diploma in Pharmaceutical Medicine from the Royal College of Physicians, UK.
- Dr. Julius is presently honorary senior faculty at the Manipal College of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Manipal where he gives guest lectures to undergraduate and postgraduate students in Medicine and Pharmacy. He also gives several guest lectures at various scientific meetings. He has over 30 scientific publications to his name.